

Universidad Central del Este

About Us

"Universidad Central del Este" (UCE) is a private institution located in the eastern region of the Dominican Republic, whose mission is to train professionals in a comprehensive manner, in various disciplines related to Health Sciences, Humanities, Laws, Administration and Information Technologies, Economics, Social Sciences, Engineering and Natural Resources, through relevant academic programs, extension courses, and other activities that promote individual and collective development. Its vision is to be an institution of national and international renowned prestige, of academic excellence in the development and management of knowledge. It focuses on training professionals, with values based on truth; through service and transformation of social and economic reality; based on the scientific and technological advancement of the region, the country and the world.

Its organizational structure consists of an academic, scientific and service oriented community, whose work is based on achieving values, essential to provide highly qualified talent that can successfully join the society in order to contribute with the development of their community and achieve social and personal progress as an individual as well as a social entity.